

Title	Author	Book Description
He Still Moves Stones	Max Lucado	Lucado demonstrates how God still works, even in our everyday challenges with difficult relatives, growing older, facing fears, etc.
One Church Many Tribes	Richard Twiss	Twiss, a Christian Native American, reflects on the history of evangelism to Native Americans and how the church can do more to reach indigenous people with the good news of Jesus Christ.
Sitting by my Laughing Fire	Ruth Bell Graham	A book of poetry by a woman who grew up as a missionary in China and married Billy Graham.
The Ministry of Motherhood	Sally Clarkson	Following Christ's Example in Reaching the Hearts of Our Children
Different	Sally Clarkson and Nathan Clarkson	The story of an outside-the-box kid with uncontrollable energy and the Christian parents who love him.
A Severe Mercy	Sheldon Vanauken	After Sheldon's wife falls prey to a mysterious illness, he writes an almost unbearably powerful story of hope and sorrow.
Seeing Green: Don't Let Envy Color Your Joy	Tilly Dillehay	This book seeks to answer the question - What if instead of feeling envious of others we saw the spotlight of God's glory shining on them, and our first response was joy?
Oneness Embraced	Tony Evans	A pastor reflects on racial reconciliation, the kingdom, and how we are stronger together.
Ethel Waters: I Touched A Sparrow	Twila Knaack	The story of the famous singer who joined Billy Graham's ministry outreaches. She touched the hearts of many as she praised God with her beautiful voice.
Small Church Essentials	Karl Vaters	Learn how small churches play a big part in what God is doing in the world.
Acts of the Apostles	Luke (Bible writer)	Acts shows how Christianity spread from a small group of people to become a world wide movement.

Lowry Community Covenant Church's
Lowry Library
 Summer 2020

Join us this summer for Lowry Community Covenant Church's Library Program for Adults ages 18+ !

You do not have to be a member or attend LCCC in order to participate. Invite your friends!

Purpose: The goal of this reading program is to help readers grow in their knowledge about God and in their faith in Jesus Christ.

Dates: The reading program runs from June 28—September 20, 2020.

Register: Please register online at LowryCommunityCovenant.com or at the church book table so we can get a count for prizes.

Checkout: The books listed are available for checkout on the table at church on Sundays from 9:30am-12pm, whenever the church is open, and by appointment (just call Pastor Andy or Shannon).

Please sign your name next to the book you are checking out and only borrow 1-2 books at a time from church. Please return books within 2-3 weeks to give others an opportunity to read. Some books listed are also available at the Viking public library.

COVID-19 Precautions: Please practice social distancing at the check-out table and use the available hand-sanitizer. Books that are returned to the library will sit for a minimum of 48 hours to allow for sanitization.

Prizes: Read 1 Book — Pick a prize from the Prize Box
Read 2 Books — Gift Certificate to Hatchery Grill or Dairy Queen
Read 3+ Books — Pick a Gift Set (BBQ Spice Set, Baking Set, etc.), or join the Kid's Outing to AirMaxx Trampoline Park!! (St. Cloud) in the fall!

If you have questions please contact Pastor Andy or Shannon League. Have fun reading, and may you grow closer to the Lord this summer!

Title	Author	Book Description
The Hospitality Commands	Alexander Strauch	Hospitality is a biblical command. Strauch helps readers discover how hospitality can bless the local church
The Tech-Wise Family	Andy Crouch	Everyday steps for putting technology in its proper place and helping our children (as well as ourselves) enjoy the wonders of God's world that no screen can replace.
One Thousand Gifts	Ann Voskamp	A farmer's wife searches for thankfulness and finds more than she ever expected.
God's Smuggler	Brother Andrew	An autobiography of a missionary who risked his life to smuggle bibles into the Soviet Union
Insider Outsider	Bryan Loritts	Loritts writes about his journey feeling as a stranger in white evangelicalism and his hope for us all
The Great Divorce	C. S. Lewis	An imaginative story about what heaven may really be like.
The Screwtape Letters	C. S. Lewis	An engaging account of temptation—and triumph over it.
The Weight of Glory	C.S. Lewis	A collection of talks by Lewis given during WWII in which he offers guidance and inspiration for the Christian faith during a time of great doubt.
Still Time to Sing	Catharine Brandt	Prayers and Praises for Late in Life
From Prison to Praise	Chaplain (LTC) Merlin R. Carothers	From war-torn Germany to the jungles of Vietnam, first an enlistee, then a chaplain, Carothers finds that praising God in all circumstances is a blessing to the world.
The Red Sea Rules	Robert Morgan	The Same God who led you in will lead you out. Morgan offers 10 biblical strategies for moving from fear to faith.
Guiding Families	Bill Henson	An biblically-based, practical guide on how to love LGBTQ family and friends with Christ's love.

Title	Author	Book Description
In My Father's House	Corrie Ten Boom	This book shows how Corrie's parents laid a foundation of godly faith for their children in the years before their family were made prisoners at a concentration camp during WWII.
Gifted Hands	Dr. Ben Carson	The remarkable story of a gifted surgeon who gives children a second chance at life.
Coping	Elizabeth Skoglund	How famous Christians lived with depression, imperfection, suffering and need.
What Happens When Women Pray	Evelyn Christenson	This book offers both a theological and practical discussion on the purpose and power of prayer.
Finishing Our Course with Joy	J.I. Packer	Guidance from God for Engaging with Our Aging.
The Rare Jewel of Christian Contentment	Jeremiah Burroughs	Writing in the 1600s, Burroughs believed that no man or woman may live such "cheerful and contented lives as the saints of God."
Out of the Depths	John Newton	An Autobiography by the author of the hymn, Amazing Grace.
Coronavirus and Christ	John Piper	Do we have a Rock under our feet? A Rock that cannot ever be shaken?
Open Heart, Open Home	Karen Burton Mains	How to find joy through sharing your home with others.
Crossing the Waters	Leslie Leyland Fields	An Alaskan fisherwoman uses her experiences on the waters to reflect on Jesus' and the disciples' lives along the Sea of Galilee.
Hansi – The Girl Who Loved the Swastika	Maria Anna Hirschmann	A memoir of a woman who served with the Hitler Youth, was a prisoner, and later became a devoted follower of Jesus Christ.
Six Hours One Friday	Max Lucado	Lucado takes us to the foot of the cross where we find hope for life's challenges and rest for the weary.
Spirit Warriors	Stu Weber	From a former Special Forces warrior — strategies for the battles Christians face.